

Two Victorian Philanthropists

Titus Salt and Angela Burdett-Coutts

We consider two Victorians, both of whom had a strong social conscience. Sir Titus Salt was considered by many to be a great benefactor and a man ahead of his time, but others described him as a rather pompous killjoy. The talk also considers Angela Burdett-Coutts, an enormously wealthy heiress and benefactor greatly loved by the British public, but who shocked Queen Victoria by her somewhat unconventional behaviour.
